A BILLION DOLLAR PROJECT

New San Francisco To Be the Most Beautiful City in the World

Herriman of the Southern Pacific is organizing a billion dollar project to make the most modern and beautiful city in the world of San Francisco.

The idea is to make the junction of Van Ness Avenue with Market the business center of the city and do away with the old checker-board plan by running elegant boulevards around this center.

Securities Gilt Edged

It will be a bonded mortgage corporation, organized under a Federal or broad State charter with $10,000, 000 paid in capital as a working basis.
Its scope is indicated by the announcement that the company will be justified in underwriting $50,000,000 in bonds of $1,000 each to be marketed publicly. Other $50,000,000 blocks will be issued subsequently to reach a grand total of at least $250,000,000, possibly $1,000,000,000.

The company will take mortgages only on San Francisco business structures of the first class. Three hundred millions will be spent on new buildings in the fire district.

It anticipates no Government loan, and a number of trust companies in New York are favorably impressed with the plan. It has no precedent in this country, though it has been tested in Europe and found feasible and successful.

This money can be raised provided the Burnham plan of rebuilding the city is followed.

Laid Out in Compartment Like Ship

According to the new building program as the new San Francisco will be laid out in compartments like a ship, each compartment being sufficiently divided from the adjoining ones to render them fire proof.

Montgomery street will be widened fifteen feet, and extended through to Market Van Ness avenue will be extended to Mission Bay. Other compartment divisions will be the widening of Sutter street as a fire barrier on the north and Taylor street on the west.

Great emergency reservoirs will crown the hills. Powerful gasoline engines will be scattered through the business districts to pump water from the bay. New San Francisco will be absolutely fire-proof, if not earthquake proof.

New Chinatown on Telegraph Hill Chinatown will be removed. It was unfortunate that it occupied previously the beautiful eastern slope of California street hill, on which some of the finest homes formerly stood and on which the Fairmount Hotel still stands. Now that are has swept away Chinatown, the Chinese will be removed to Telegraph Hill overlooking the water front at the northwest end of the city.

While as central as the old site, it will be absolutely isolated. Any Chinese owning property there, or any whites building for them as tenants will adopt the Chinese character of architecture for this whole hill. A large pagoda will be located in a public square at the summit of this hill and all about its slopes will be clustered the Chinese homes and business houses of Chinese architecture.
New Chinatown, in other words, will be wonderfully more attractive than the old and can be seen very plainly from all the water approaches to San Francisco.

Citizens Stand By Their Guns

It is yet to go on record that one single man of prominence in San Francisco will leave. Benefitting by the experience of Baltimore, new building laws are being framed and the Mayor has just named a building committee of forty, headed by E. H. Harriman for making new building laws, changing the street grades, widening thoroughfares, building new boulevards, cutting through the great diagonals planned by D. H. Burnham, building new winding streets on easy grades to the hillsides and doing everything that will contribute to making San Francisco a model American metropolis.

Just now the railroads are anxious to bring their termini to Market street. This will probably be done in a great Union depot or in individual depots for each road. Every leading railway will have its passenger, depot on this great thoroughfare. The established business centres will not be changed, the character and calibre of the owners demanding that they remain.

Work to Begin at Once

Soon directly after protracted conferences with Secretary Shaw and President Charles K. Jesup, of the Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Harriman admitted that the restoration of the Golden Gate City was discussed at both conferences.

Headed by himself, in conjunction with President H. H. S. Black, of the United States Realty and Construction Company; William K. Vanderbilt, the Rockefeller interests, the Goulds, Thomas Magee, the San Francisco millionaire property owner; Rudolph Spreckels, D. H. Burnham author of the new plan; Benjamin Ide Wheeler, Darius O. Mills and others, a group representing a billion or more of capital, will finance the enterprise.

They will begin work immediately.
An important meeting will be held in the Harriman offices, to solidify the project. Evidence that these powerful financiers are in earnest is shown by the announcement that President Black, of the United States Realty Company, and manager of the Fuller Construction Company, which practically rebuilt Baltimore, will be in San Francisco in a few days. Back of them are James Stillman, representing the Rockefellers; Charles G. Gates P. A. Valentine, representing the Armours, Charles M. Schwab and other powerful interests.
